Southern hospitality and modern elegance abound at The Peabody Orlando—the nation’s largest Forbes Travel Guide Four Star and AAA Four Diamond non-gaming resort. Located on International Drive, directly across from and adjacent to the Orange County Convention Center, The Peabody Orlando offers 1,641 ultra-luxurious guestrooms, 300,000 total square feet of state-of-the-art flexible function space, 22,000-square-foot, full-service spa, salon and fitness center and ten dining and entertainment options. “Networking niches” such as the 6,000-square-foot Rocks lounge and the exclusive Lounge within The Loft offer collaborative spaces for guests to innovate and rejuvenate. For culinary aficionados, The Peabody Orlando’s award-winning culinary teams serve tantalizing tastes at its three signature restaurants Napa, B-Line Diner and Capriccio Grill. The newest restaurant, Napa, pairs wine country flavors with Florida’s finest local ingredients. Serenity awaits at The Spa where customizable services and group menus range from renewing rituals to tension tamers. Of course, no visit to The Peabody Orlando is complete without experiencing the March of the Peabody Ducks. Five North American mallards stride from their Royal Duck Palace alongside their Duckmaster™ each morning at 11 a.m. to the atrium fountain to mingle with guests before returning home at 5 p.m. Learn more at www.peabodyorlando.com.
